“ Aunt Alice's nature was one of the warmest, accepting, caring and gentle I've ever known. She stands with my mother as a beautiful person. I wonder if she ever knew how much her spirit radiated. It's so easy to remember. It was just there. So good. So natural. Our shared times were too few.

Today if one were to try to imagine what a quiet modern day angel living among us would look like and wish to meet one I would say to them, "I wish you could have met my Aunt Alice".

I got to know Alice at BrennField. She was such a beautiful person. I grew to love her like family. She always had a hug for me. My deepest sympathy for Susan and family. Rip in peace my beautiful friend. I'll always remember our talks. Always in my heart.
