“ I remember many happy moments spent with Betty and the family. While a teen, during those formative years, Betty was there for me as a second Mom. She would be there for me if I had an issue with my Mom, which most teens do, Betty would lend a shoulder to cry on or provide sound advice that would guide me towards a resolution. Betty treated me and my daughters as her own and wouldn't pull any punches. She'd give it to us straight. What an Angel that the Lord has received into his arms. Love you Betty, give my Mom a hug. Love, Sharon Richards
