A dream is a wish your heart makes, and dreams do come true.

Our cure is just over the rainbow, and we need help from you.

Our children suffer from Batten Disease, a disease that will break your heart.

You can help us in our fight, if we can all do our part.

We are asking for your donations, in this one moment and time.

To help find a cure, the outcome is of a fatal kind.

Without a cure we will lose our children, their hopes and smiles will be gone.

No one to tuck in bed at night, no one to sing a song.

With your donations, our kisses and hugs will remain.

Time is of the essence, scientific discoveries to be gained.

With love and compassion, Our miracle can happen!

Shelli Carbrey (March 2004)
