“ My deepest sympathy to Brian and Theresa and family . Camilla was a beautiful person inside and out. Loved seeing her at the organ on sunday mornings at west hill church. She always had a smile on her face. The last time I remember seeing her was many years ago at BUehlers. She told me about how Brian and THEResa and her grandkids were doing in Alaska. She was a very proud grandmother. She will be deeply missed by all . Love Pat and Tom Swisher

“ I have known Camilla since growing up in the Lutheran Church in Wooster, where her dad was custodian and I was later secretary. Her brother, Bill, was in my HS class. She was a really sweet gal and will be missed by many. My sincere sympathy to you and the rest of her family. Justine Geiser
