“ *To Carolyn's family,
Carolyn and I were both fighting lymphoma. She was so much support for me, and so strong. We both tried to encourage each other and she gave me many tips on nutrition and supplements. I had not talked to her for awhile and was planning on calling her, when I saw the paper. My heart goes out to you all.
Carolyn was a wonderful woman, and dealt with many heartships in her life. She was so thankful to have such a supportive family. I am in remission now; and feel that she helped me get to the place I am. With her encouragement and friendship.
God be with you, Linda*
