“ Dear Linz family, I have such beautiful memories of Catherine for many years at the Brunswick House of Prayer. Her love for our Lord and her beautiful sense of humor made her a pleasure to be around. I especially remember her saying grace for us at one of our dinners and with a soft chuckle she ask the Lord to please remove the calories from the desserts. My prayers and thoughts are with the family. We love you all. Bob & Sue Miller.##imported-begin##Sue Miller##imported-end##

“ I declare to you, brothers and sisters, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable. 51 Listen, I tell you a mystery: We will not all sleep, but we will all be changed— 52 in a flash, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed. 53 For the perishable must clothe itself with the imperishable, and the mortal with immortality. 54 When the perishable has been clothed with the imperishable, and the mortal with immortality, then the saying that is written will come true: “Death has been swallowed up in victory.”[f]

55 “Where, O death, is your victory?
Where, O death, is your sting?”[g]

56 The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. 57 But thanks be to God! He gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.##imported-begin##John Frohnapple and Judy Iguchi##imported-end##
