“Dad... I miss you more than words can explain! Im trying my best to make you proud of me. Nobody seems to really see how other family members are doing anymore. I miss how close everybody use to be when you were here. everyone slowly went their own paths. I need you and family more than anything for advice. I have two children I wish you could have meet. Me and Kendra got married back in July. I still haven't really dealt with you dying. I can't even drive past the cemetery with out trying my hardest not to cry! I wish I could of had more time with you dad. Its so so so so hard being a dad and husband and working 60 hours a week. I get so stressed out not being able to ask for your advice on certain things in my life. Nobody knows but I pray every morning that you will look after my kids and me and guide us the way you did us kids. I got to get few hours of sleep. If you can some how see this dad I love you and can't wait to see you again soon one day dad. Love you pops
