“ Dear family and friends of Clara Yoder,
I remember greeting Clara, her husband Daniel, and her sister Mary in the halls at Wooster Church of the Nazarene... What warm and loving people! Even though I am not deaf, and understand very little American Sign Language, we were able to communicate enough... I loved the way that Clara took such good care of Daniel -- and he of her. It was very clear that they loved (and still love) each other dearly. God bless, Precious Ones... Yes, Clara will be greatly missed... but as members of God's family, it is NOT "Good-bye" but rather "See you later." Therefore, I say, "See you later Clara. I look forward to seeing you again when God calls me home." Love always, In Christ our Lord, Trish Emerson -- a member of the Worship Choir at Wooster Church of the Nazarene

“ Clara had beautiful smile and bright out days.. now she is no longer on this earth and watch over every one of you.. I am sure that Clara would like to see you all one more time before go home with Lord. She has no time but go home with Lord and No more suffering.. Now she is celebrating new life in Heaven. She will be missed.. We all love Clara..

“ Dear Daniel, Mary, and family,

Clara was a sweet, sweet person and always had a smile on her face. She was so nice but happy she is in the arms of the Lord! Wish I could see her one more time. She will be missed! Love to all. Sorry cannot be there as out of town. Peace to all.
