“ I hired Don as a contract programmer in 1997. My original intent was a short term contract but because of his good quality work and attention to detail I kept him on until he retired in approx 2004. Don was a great guy. We had many good discussions over the years. He was quite the intellectual and enjoyed discussing deep topics. He was one of my favorite people that I've worked with in my career. When he talked about Sheryl and Lori-anne it was obvious he loved you both very dearly. He didn't get to see you as often as he would have liked, but you were always close in his thoughts. It's a sad day to hear that Don has died. My prayers are with you daughters and other family and friends.
