“ I remember Anne when I first taught at Hillsdale Elementary in Jeromesville. Anne was a VERY good friend of my mother-in-law, Katherine Draper. I had lost track of Mrs. Kittle, but remember her kind and gentle manner. She even let me borrow a prized notebook of activities from Brenda (I am pretty sure it was Brenda, but that was a long time ago) when I began teaching the kindergarten class. I was trained at an upper level and REALLY APPRECIATED all the wonderful ideas in that well put together notebook. I never properly thanked any of you.##imported-begin##Deanna Draper##imported-end##

“ Brenda & Becky,
I wish I could be there to give you a big hug. I know the bittersweet feelings you must be having now. I've certainly been there, but rest in the promise that we'll see our loved ones again. It all seems so long ago now, but I have great memories of them when we were growing up. I know my mom thought so much of your folks and always enjoyed seeing them before they moved to be close to you. I'll be praying for you in the coming days and weeks.##imported-begin##Liz Cutler Gates##imported-end##

“ Becky and Brenda,
I can't believe your mother has passed. I didn't know that your dad passed away in 1997. I'm so sorry for your loss. Your parents made quite an impression on me. Their courage dealing with polio was amazing to me. I can still remember following your mom up and down the steps at Jeromesville during first grade. I loved her as a teacher and as a great person.
I lived in the house that they had built in Reedsburg for a time and raised a few animals there as well. Lots of memories flooded back then remembering those huge bales of hay that we stacked in the barn and then your dad salting the mow down so it wouldn't burn down the barn.
Anyway, I'm teaching a vocational course now at Madison in Mansfield and I only hope to make a difference in some kids life like your parents made a difference in mine.
Best wishes,
