“ I value the memories of our visits to Wooster to see Frances and you, children. I've been so impressed with the tender care you have given your mother for many years. She was a great domino player and reader, and had a good sense of humor. I'm sorry we can't be with you at this time, but you are in our thoughts and prayers. “ too all of my wonderful family: I'm forever so sorry about grandma.... know she had been battling a long time... and now, she is free from anymore suffering, my memories of her are the ones where she would hit JJ and Jim in the head for fighting over a card game! (that is cause she would go out on them underhanded and leave them with lots of points) and many family holidays together... her memories are forever locked in my heart... and now, she can play cards with her grand-baby again... and oh don't forget the bowling... probably getting her ready to roll some balls... so when you hear thunder... think Grandma and Jimmy are getting strikes in heaven...;) we love you grandma... remember, save us all a seat, cause we will be reunited again...;)###imported-begin##Tracy Bodnar- Jones###imported-end##
