“ My mother, Thelma Eddy, now Baysinger, worked at the Wooster Brush Co. during the 1950's-1970's. She spoke often of her co-workers but she talked of none more fondly than of Helen Kelly. I saw the obituary online at The Daily Record, and almost 40 years later, recognized the name of an old friend of my mother, who is now 90. When I told Mom, she was very sorry and upset to hear of her passing. She talked about what a good and nice person Helen was, and wanted me to send her sympathies and prayers to Helen's family.##imported-begin##Thelma Eddy-Baysinger##imported-end##
