“ One day I was very up set about my children and Jack could tell. He sent me a IM and told not to worry or be upset. Take one day at a time and things will work out. He also told me that I have many friends that enjoy me and love me. He said I love you. Jack always made all his friends enjoy all of his posts. I will miss Jack so much but one day I will see him again.

“ Jack was a friend from Salem (OH) Senior High School, class of '66. His stature made him stand out in comparison with others. Getting reacquainted through Facebook several years ago brought us together again. My wife and I stopped to see Jack and meet Paula with our grandson. We had lunch at the Barn and shared high school memories. Then, a few months later, we were together again when a classmate organized a get together at Jack's house. Paula did all of the prep and we just showed up and surprised the dickens out of Jack! I was so glad to be a part of that day! Jack will be long remembered... until we meet again in God's Heaven and even after that!
