“ Joyce was so much fun to see and talk with. I used to check her at the Wayne County Library. We all loved her southern accent. She was always excited to tell stories about grandkids---she was so proud of them! Even when she had water leaking in her apartment, and they were running noisy rans, she took it in her stride. (We were both Joyces, so we would always say, "How are you doing today, Joyce.") I retired in 2008, so have really missed seeing her for a while. We did send Christmas cards to each other.

It sure was fun knowing her, and I am sure she will be sadly missed!

God bless your family.

Love,

Joyce##imported-begin##Joyce Apel##imported-end##
