“ Missing you today more than anyone could understand... I sit here and watch the snow fall and remember how much you loved it & how much i hated it && how we would fight about if it sucked or was awesome lol.. You wouldnt believe everything that I have been going through since you passed.. its been CRAZY i need some guidance and advice right now and your not here to give it to me.. I have tried to think about what you would tell me and it dont work all the time.. well i love you and miss you.##imported-begin##Christie##imported-end##

“ *My prayers are with you. Even though things happen that we don't understand, there is a divine purpose for everything.
She is free of pain with loving arms wrapped around her.
May she smile down on all of us.
Cherish the memories, they will keep her close in your heart.

“ My prayers and thoughts go out to the family. In this time of sorrow, the Lord says, let not your hearts be filled with sorrow. Just remember, its the living we need to be sad for, she is in the greatest of hands. She is not in pain, she is much better than anyone of us could be. She was called home because God needed her and did not want her to be in anymore pain.##imported-begin##Consuella Smothers##imported-end##
