“ You have our sympathy with Loretta's passing. We were friends of Sam and Loretta while they lived in the Vermilion area and attended Amherst Foursquare.

Sam will be happy in having Loretta back...

May you be comforted with your memories of Loretta.

“ Loretta always called us her adopted kids. She was so special to us. We have alot of good memories. But the greatest memory of all is her love of God and her how she spent so much time praying for all of her family and friends. She will be greatly missed but none of us can wish her back for she is now made totally whole and at home with her Lord and Savior, and Sam, whom she missed so much. Let each of us now run the race faithfully, so that we as well may have the joy of seeing spending eternity with Jesus, and with Loretta and Sam. Our prayers are with you.##imported-begin##Loyd & Dreama Caudill & family##imported-end##
