“ Margret and my family had known each other for several years but I only got to know her personally for a little over a year. I wouldn't trade it for anything. Margret touched my life more than she even new. Many times we discussed questions I had in the Bible and gave me advice without judgement. Singing for the Lord was a passion she had and a lot of times she would sing for me. Often her music would touch home for me. She was seeet kind and very loving. I've never met anyone like her!!! I am so sadden by her passing. One thing that is comforting is knowing that I will see her smiling face when I get to heaven. To you Miss Margret (Grandma) I love and miss you!!!

“ My sincere sympathies to Margaret's family. I remember her singing at Millersburg Church of God. With two of her daughters. She just filled the sanctuary with her wonderful voice and brilliant smile. She is now singing with the Angels in Heaven. Rest In Peace Margaret.
