“ I don't know how many favorite aunts a person can have, and it's an especially difficult choice when it comes to the Spence and Numbers families. Over the years we have just loved being with and enjoying the Spence sisters, Mayvene, Edna, and Eudora. What wonderful memories we have of family gatherings where the stories were funny and beguiling and endless. They all got so much out of life! What marvelous examples of endurance, acceptance, contentment, and joy.

In 2007 we were fortunate enough to have a 90th birthday party for Leona at our home in Chandler, AZ. Gene & Linda Houmard brought the bunch: Irene Kirkpatrick, Jeanne Howman, and Mayvene. What a treat to just listen to them reminisce, to go shopping with them, to celebrate the years of happiness and fun together.

I'll always love and remember Mayvene's spirit, her terrific sense of humor, her interest in everyone, and her sheer joy of living. Our sincere sympathy in her loss to all her family. She was one of the best.##imported-begin##Eddie & Jan Spence##imported-end##

“ Bran, T, Sid and the rest of the family:

When we lose someone we love, it seems that time stands still. What moves through us is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch, we may not understand why they left this earth so soon, or why they left before you were ready to say good-bye, but little by little, you begin to remember not just that she died, but that she lived. And that her life gave you all memories too beautiful to forget. To live in hearts we leave behind is not to die.

Please accept my heartfelt sympathy on the passing of your loved one.

You're all in my thoughts and prayers.

Love,

*Regina (Brandi's friend from work)##imported-begin##Regina
