“ To my Uncle Mick, I remember when I was a tot, I wasn't sure what to think of you. You being so big and loud scared me a little, and I would always hide when you came over to visit. Then I decided to give you a shot, and found out that you were a pretty fun uncle. Like when you would stop over almost everyday after work to play the Mariokart video game with my dad, my brother, and I. We had so much fun, especially laughing at you because you could hardly ever win a game. You were a good sport. Even though I did not see you that much your last few years, when you were living in Florida, I thought of you often. You had a personality like no other, and I will always love and miss you. “ I would like to say,I have not spoken to Mick for 10 years,loved him enough to marry him feared him enough to leave him.I felt no sadness untill I read his obituarie .He was a flambouyant man,who lived his life large,I felt I was reading a generic obituarie,not Micks.He had lots of family and I do believe they had names.I do pray Mick made peace with God.Sometime I may watch our wedding video and maybe I will cry then for the part of him that acted like a little boy. .Goodbye Mick may you rest in peace.##imported-begin##Mindy##imported-end##
