We had the good fortune to enjoy being neighbors with Charlie and Norma since 1986. Little chats while out in the yard, meeting at the curb on Thursday afternoons, occasionally sitting on the back porch at 5 o'clock to share some cheese.

Our older daughter and her husband and 3 sons bought 105 when Norma thought it was time to move, and sold it to a new family in June, 2016. The new family is Mom and Dad, with little girls age 2 and 4 who are having fun playing in the yard and riding tricycles in the driveway.

We know that you all have many good memories, and miss them.
