“ Lee & family . . . Thank you for allowing us the privilege of singing for Ollie one last time. Ollie & Lee have been our greatest fans and supporters down through the years. We will miss her smiles, hugs and kisses. And, we will certainly miss her chocolate caramel cake, which was always a treat to look forward to. WHAT A LADY. We have been blessed to have had the honor of knowing her. Our thanks to Rhonda and her husband for inviting us to their beautiful home after the funeral and for the wonderful meal. Ollie would have been so pleased with every part of her service. She loved each of you and we feel like we know all of you personally from hearing all the great stories of the family from Ollie and Lee. If we never meet again down here on earth, we will look forward to meeting all of you again in heaven. OLLIE WILL BE WAITING FOR US!! “ Lee & family,
It will not be the same when we come to the Loudonville Church and Ollie not be there. We know that the last time we were there she made such an effort to be there, too. She has been a real blessing to us down through the years and we will miss her dearly, but know that as much as we miss her, you and her children, grandchildren and all her family will be missing her even more. We are here for you . . . just a phone call away. All our love, Bob & Sonnie###imported-begin###Bob & Sondra Kniley###imported-end##

“ Lee and Family,

Our sincere condolences go out to you and your during this time of tremendous loss.

As you know, Ollie was a special, special friend of ours and we are grieving with you. Not for her, because we know she is with our Savior in Heaven and wouldn't want to come back, but for those that are left without her.

We never saw Ollie that she didn't treat us far, far better than we deserved. What a Godly friend she was.

We, like you, will miss her more than anything I could ever say or write.

We just pray that God will comfort all and let us realize that it won't be long before Morning is here.

God Bless and Keep You

Dear Lee and family,

We are saddened to learn of the passing of your beloved Ollie. She will be greatly missed.

However, we know that she loved her Savior dearly. She has "gone home."

*Please be reassured that this is only a "temporary parting."
It is not "good bye" but see "you later."*

Grieving is a part of loving. But, praise be to God that God's children do not grieve as those who have no hope.

There will be a glad reunion in God's good time.

Love and prayers,

Trish and Darrell Emerson

“ *I just want to send my prayers to you, Lee and your family. I am the girl that works at Dunlap Hospital's front desk. And Olive and I became friends again. She remembered me from years ago and never forgot my face. It was nice seeing her again. I was sadden by her health issues and now her passing. But know she is at peace and painfree now. As I am writing this to you I too am preparing a funeral for my father, who passed away suddenly at home on Sunday. I feel all your pain. Take care and God bless.
