“ R.C, you were one of my favorite patients! I loved seeing you and your wife! I will miss you so much! Now you are up in heaven, walking around and grinning that ornery grin. Much love to Ruby and your family.

“ Uncle RC, as a little girl, I remember the special weekends Lisa & I spent with your family at your loving home. Most of the time Sis (forgive me, I will always call you this) would pick us up. Many times we would stop at the country store for candy on the way. I remember the paper sacks, grocery sacks filled to the top with pop corn for movie night. How I wish Mom & I were able to visit more often.

Being new to Christ, I wish I would have sought your counsel and learned all there is to learn about the Bible. I regret not praying with you during our last visit just a few short weeks ago. How I wanted to hear you speak in "tongues."

You are a God given blessing!

I love you!

“ As a little girl, I remember my Uncle as a prankster, and he told me many times that he was always my protector when my mother tried to punish me for misbehaving. He was a kind and gentle man and I know my Mother is happy to have him with her again!

“ My dad was a great man, an honest, hard working man, who lived for God, and his family. The world is a little sadder now, but the Heaven's are rejoicing with their new angel.
