Rich chose to take early retirement from the Ashland Oil Refinery in Canton, Ohio in order to fulfill a call the Lord had placed on his heart to serve as the Care Pastor at Wooster Church of the Nazarene. Rich felt these were the best times of their lives and treasured being able to touch the lives of the people God brought across their pathway. He had also been a long distance trucker, electrician, builder and factory worker. He enjoyed landscaping, wood carving and raising hostas, rabbits, pygmy goats and tropical fish. His favorite enjoyment was playing games and visiting with his family.

He is survived by his wife, Judy, and three children, Kelley (Robert) Scavuzzo of Georgia, Michael (Susie Swartz) Daye of Florida and Mark (Cindy Wiles) Daye of Wooster; grandchildren, Tony Scavuzzo, Matthew Scavuzzo, Thomas Scavuzzo, Bethany Daye, Timothy Daye, Natasha Daye and Jaira Daye; brothers, Charles (Dixie) Daye of Alabama, Donald (Ruth) daye of Wooster, Robert (Joanie) Daye of Georgia and Kenneth (Joanie) Daye of Pennsylvania plus nephews, nieces, cousins, aunts and uncles.

“ Dear Judy and family,

We share your sorrow. Rich was greatly loved by many.

I would like to share my morning devotions with you:

Sorrow to Joy

*"Weeping may endure for the night, but joy cometh in the morning."
My bravest are those who can anticipate the morning and feel in the night of sorrow that underlying Joy that tells of confident expectations of the morning.*

My Bible Promise For Today

"But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope."

1 Thessalonians 4: 13

This parting is not "Good-bye," but "See you later."

It is the promise of a glad tomorrow.

In Christ,

Trish Emerson

(Hopefully, you will get this message only once. This is my second attempt. I think I might have messed up the first time.

*There was a message: "Name Missing". Or why I am trying again. --
