“ I am the Dietary Manager at Glendora. Ruth was a joy to have. She was a sweet, quiet, gentle soul, we loved her. She loved to tell stories about a farm and her kitties and I always showed her my pictures of my silly cat, dogs and our cows. She loved to just sit and hold my hand. She would always worry that she was a bother, every moment I got I told her how wonderful this world was to have her and her beautiful red hair (she always laughed when I would tell her how much I loved her red hair) in it. She will be truly and deeply missed. You were (are) an angel Ruth Ott, Love you...with deepest sympathy and love Polly Messenger
