“ Ted was one of my closest friends in high school. But we went our separate ways afterwards. I was looking forward to seeing him again at our 50th high school reunion, only to learn of his affliction after I arrived. Our reunion will have to wait for a later day. Unfortunately, I and my classmates have reached the age when we start losing each other more often. My condolences to his family and his father. Gordon Warren

“ To The Family of Ted Hill: Ted was a faithful attendee in my Silver Sneakers group at the YMCA. Everyone liked to stand near Ted as he was always encouraging and supportive. He was an inspiration to me as he fought against the disease with such courage. His chocolate chip cookies were the hit of every carry-in! I am sending my most sincere sympathy for your loss. He will be greatly missed. Jenna Waggoner, former SS teacher
