

Thomas D. Craig

January 1, 1915 - October 30, 2012

Thomas D. Craig, age 97, of Ashland, entered into rest, Wednesday evening, October 30, 2012 at his residence where he was surrounded by his loving family following a short illness.

In the future weeks, the family will have a private graveside gathering.

Custer-Glenn Funeral Home in Wooster is privileged with serving the family.

Memorial contributions may be made in lieu of flowers to: Hospice of North Central Ohio, 1050 Dauch Dr., Ashland, Ohio 44907.

Words of comfort may be shared with the family at: www.custerglenn.com.

He was born on January 1, 1915 in Bellaire, Ohio to Bud and Callie J. (Ruble) Craig and has been an Ashland County resident since 1943.

He married Beverly Deniece McHenry on July 31, 1939 in Woodsfield, Ohio. She entered into rest on August, 1996.

He previously worked as a coal miner for many years. He then worked for the former Westinghouse Co. of Mansfield and then most recently for Sarver's Construction Co. in Ashland for many years.

He was an avid gardener and enjoyed cooking.

He is survived by 3 daughters, Dorthy J. (Michael) Johnson of Mansfield, Linda S. (William F.) Farver and Judith C. (Fred) Rafeld all of Ashland; 8 grandchildren, 18 great-grandchildren and 2 great-great grandchildren; 2 sisters, Verma Lorenz and Lillian Warner both of New Philadelphia, Ohio and a special friend, Jane L. Vines of Ashland, Ohio.

In addition to his parents and loving wife, he is preceded in death by a son,

Daniel L. Craig.
