“ Well Tom, here is a blast from your past. Alisha and I have spoken about you over the years and yes, she stills remembers you. She not only remembers how funny you were but also your love and kindness that you gave her when we were together. When I think of you Tom I will always remember your sense of humor, which was a huge part of your infectious personality. TB, you will never be forgotten and I pray that you are in the arms of Jesus.
To the Brenner family, my deepest sympathy in the loss of your father, grandfather and brother.
