“ I was not notified of my uncles death until just recently. I want to express my sympathy to Gloria and all other relatives. I hadn't seen Uncle Bill since Aunt Dee Dee's funeral, but talked to him occasionally.

Uncle Bill lived a good and long life. He will be missed by many.

“ Gloria,
My deepest sympathies to you and your family. Bill was such a wonderful person and such a gentleman. We had so many good times working at Custer's. I know that we all could share many great stories. May God comfort you in the days to come.

“ Dear Gloria:
We were so sorry to hear about Bill. He was such a blessing to both Keith and I. He was always a gentleman, very kindhearted and a joy to be around. I enjoyed the many years I worked with him at Custer's - he could do lots of different things and was an asset to the company! Our thoughts and prayers are with you as you go through this difficult time.

Sincerely,

Keith & Ann Kline###imported-begin##Ann Kline###imported-end##
